Dear Governor Malloy and Governor Deal:

My name is Johnny Devone and I am a lifelong resident of the State of Connecticut. For the past twenty-nine years I have been an officer with the Bridgeport Police Department holding the ranks of Sergeant and currently Detective. I have always been a law abiding citizen and respected the integrity of the Department that I work for.

However, the events of the past week have caused me to question whether I should have fear instead of respect for the judicial and law enforcement authorities. On March 11, 2013 at approximately 1:00 am I was awakened from sleep by some ten to twelve members of the Connecticut State Police who came in search of my grandson. The child was not there and was later taken by six State Police from the home where he and his grandmother were staying. The child was immediately whisked away to his mother who resides in Georgia. What lead to such a massive show of force to remove a child that I, my son, and my family have cared for since he was left with us, and virtually abandoned by his mother in June 2011?

On February 26, 2013 the child's mother, Brittany Finley, falsely testified under oath before a Cobb County Georgia Superior Court Judge that the child had "resided exclusively in Georgia until January 26, 2012". This false statement apparently caused the Georgia Judge to issue an emergency order awarding her custody of the child.

Finley repeated this perjured testimony on February 28 before Fairfield County Connecticut Superior Court Judge, Howard Owens. At this time on questioning from her own counsel she testified that the child had not been in Connecticut for any reason prior to November 2011. I provided testimony that at all times from June 2011 until the date of the court hearing the child had resided with me, his father, and my family in Bridgeport Connecticut. Similarly, my son testified that his child had resided in Connecticut except for two visits with his mother in Georgia during the summer of 2012 and from the Thanksgiving holiday 2011 through January 26, 2012. [Copies of hearing transcript excerpts are attached hereto as Exhibit A].

The Connecticut Judge did not have to rely only upon my testimony and that of my son, the child's father. He was presented with irrefutable documentary evidence of (a) Connecticut HUSKY medical insurance documents showing eligibility of the child as early as September 2011, (b) records of an emergency room visit by the child in Connecticut on October 29, 2011, (c) records showing medical office visit in Connecticut regarding treatment for club feet on November 8, 2011, (d) medical records showing well baby office visits at Saint Vincent's Hospital in Bridgeport on November 8, 2011; and (e) other documents showing the purchase of child necessities such as pampers dating back to July, August, September and October 2011. [Copies of the documents presented to the court are attached hereto as Exhibit B].

Perhaps the Georgia Judge was merely deceived by the perjured testimony of Finley. After all, my son was deprived of due process by receiving notice of the hearing in Georgia only one day before the hearing was held. The Georgia Judge heard only one side of the story. According to Finley she did inform the Georgia Judge that a custody petition had already been filed in Connecticut on January 23, 2013 by my son. Why would the Georgia Judge issue an emergency order for custody when under the law the place of jurisdiction for child custody disputes is based upon the last six months where the child resided? My grandson had resided with me and his father in Bridgeport for the last eighteen months!

Even if the Georgia Judge was deceived, there was no sound basis for Judge Owens to deny jurisdiction. At the time of the hearing in this matter on February 28, Judge Owens admitted that he knew little about this area of law and would have to research the matter.

Nevertheless, on March 8 an order was issued by Judge Owens denying jurisdiction in the Connecticut court and dismissing my son's petition for custody. Why would the Connecticut Judge ignore the evidence of clearly perjured testimony by Finley and deny jurisdiction when it was clear that the home state of the child had been Connecticut for the last eighteen months?

Within three hours after the Connecticut Judge issued his order denying jurisdiction to hear my son's petition for custody, an appeal was filed in Hartford with the Connecticut Appellate Court. At the same time a motion was filed with the Connecticut Judge seeking a stay of execution of his order dismissing my son's petition for custody. That motion was not heard by Judge Owens until after the child was taken.

Despite these legitimate legal steps, three days later in the dead of night on March 12, ten to twelve members of the Connecticut State Police came to my home to execute a search warrant seeking to seize the child. Although I was not given a copy of the warrant it was apparently signed by another Connecticut Superior Court Judge George Thim authorizing the state police to take this child whom I and my son have cared for without any assistance whatsoever from the mother for the last eighteen months.

The child was ultimately taken from us by some six state troopers, with no apparent involvement by child protective services to ensure no trauma to my grandson. He was turned over to the mother who left him in Bridgeport with us eighteen months ago and presumably she has taken him to Georgia.

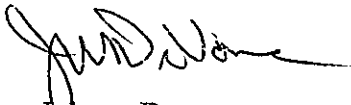

How could Finley, a Georgia resident, obtain free legal services from Connecticut Legal Services to pursue her claims in Connecticut? I am aware of Connecticut residents who have been denied free legal assistance under similar circumstances. How could my grandson's rights as a Connecticut citizen be ignored in all of this?

How could my son, who stepped up to the plate to care for his son when the mother left him, be arrested twice now based upon the mother's perjured testimony that the child had never been in Connecticut before January 2012? First an attempt was made to arrest him based on a

Georgia warrant for custodial interference. He turned himself in to Bridgeport Police but no Governor's warrant was apparently ever issued by the State of Georgia. No Governor's warrant has ever been issued in Connecticut. He was again arrested on March 12 for custodial interference, the same matter for which he had already been arrested a court date of March 21. It appears that the criminal process was used to force the return of a child that my son has devoted himself to caring for when the mother was stating that she could not handle the requirements of taking care of an infant.

In my humble opinion something has gone seriously wrong when the government assists in kidnapping a child through forcible means especially when proper legal channels were being pursued. There was no emergency that existed warranting seizing my grandson under these circumstances. It is this type of commando style raid that has some American citizens wondering whether we should fear our own government. I write this letter seeking a review at the highest levels regarding this matter.

Sincerely,

Johnny Devone

1 Q Mr. Devone, are you currently employed?

2 A Yes.

3 Q By whom?

4 A The City of Bridgeport Police Department.

5 Q Which department?

6 A Bridgeport Police Department.

7 Q Okay. And what position do you hold there?

8 A I'm a detective sergeant.

9 Q How long have you worked for Bridgeport Police
10 Department?

11 A Twenty-eight years.

12 Q Okay. Now, you are the grandfather of the child
13 whose custody is at issue in this case?

14 A Yes.

15 Q Okay. Now -

16 THE COURT: You can be seated if you want to.
17 Whatever you like. Whatever makes you comfortable.
18 It's a court trial, so it's not a big issue.

19 ATTY. MILLER: Okay.

20 THE COURT: That applies to you too, obviously.

21 Q All right. Now, you've said that you reside at 22 Chopsey Hill Road; is that correct?

23 A Correct.

24 Q How long have you lived there?

25 A Fourteen years and maybe four months.

26 Q Okay. Now, has your grandson, John Michael Devone,
27 ever resided with you at the Chopsey Hill address?

1 A Yes.

2 Q Okay. And -

3 THE COURT: From when to when?

4 THE WITNESS: To my recollection, your Honor, in
5 December of 2010 my son graduated from college. I
6 went to Georgia to attend the ceremony. And shortly
7 thereafter my son, my grandson and Miss Finely came
8 and stayed in my home.

9 THE COURT: And that was - when did they come to 10 stay in your home?

11 THE WITNESS: Maybe about six months after the 12 graduation, December.

13 THE COURT: So that would take it up to June of 14 what year?

15 THE WITNESS: 2011.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Is June of 2011 - is that 17 about right?

18 THE WITNESS: Yes.

19 THE COURT: When they all three came to live
20 with you?

21 THE WITNESS: Yes.

22 THE COURT: Or all -

23 THE WITNESS: All three of them.

24 THE COURT: Who? The mother came too?

25 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

26 THE COURT: Go ahead.

27 Q And, Mr. Devone, you testified that your grandson

1 came in June of 2011. Was there ever an occasion when Miss
2 Finely was no longer living there at the Chopsey Hill
3 address?

4 A Yeah. After a while she did go, return back to
5 Georgia.

6 Q Okay. And when she returned to Georgia what happened
7 with the grandson?

8 A Everybody stayed in place. He was at my home from 9 that time up to present day.

10 Q Okay. So John Michael, Sr. - excuse me - Junior
11 you're testifying was at your home from June of 2011 until -

12 A Present day.

13 Q The present?

14 A Yes.

15 Q Now, have there been any occasion -

16 THE COURT: Let me just interrupt you. When did
17 the mother go back to Georgia? Do you have any 18 estimate of approximate time?

19 THE WITNESS: Your Honor, I'd have say maybe
20 three weeks after she arrived.

21 THE COURT: So she wasn't here very - she was 22 here about three weeks in toto; is that correct?

23 THE WITNESS: Yes. Yes.

24 THE COURT: In the beginning; right? Okay.

25 THE WITNESS: I encouraged her to stay.

26 THE COURT: Okay. I'm sure.

27 Q So do you know why she went back to Georgia after

1 month of November.

2 Q So he had no contact with you during that time. What
3 about with your son?

4 A He did not call. His grandmother, however, did.

5 Q Did he visit?

6 A No.

7 Q Okay. And then in October or November of 2011 what
8 happened?

9 A I relocated back to Winnet (phonetic), my mother's 10 residence at 570 Oak Vista Court, Lawrenceville, Georgia.

11 Q Okay. And then did Mr. Devone become a part of your 12 life or your son's life at that point again?

13 A At that point he did. I believe in January he began
14 visiting at Winnet (phonetic).

15 Q Okay. Did your son at some point go to visit his 16 grandparents in Connecticut during that time?

17 A Yes, ma'am.

18 Q Okay. And when was that?

19 A He did that around January.

20 Q Of?

21 A 2012.

22 Q Of 2012.

23 A Yes, ma'am.

24 Q Okay. But before that in November of 2011 was your 25 son in Connecticut for any reason?

26 A No, ma'am.

27 Q Okay. And so he went to visit his - your son went to

1 ATTY. VARONE: Objection, your Honor.

2 Q Is that accurate?

3 ATTY. VARONE: That mischaracterizes her
4 testimony. She never testified to that.

5 THE COURT: I didn't remember that testimony.
6 Sustained.

7 Q You testified at the hearing in Georgia on February
8 26th; correct?

9 A Yes, ma'am.

10 Q Okay. Let me ask you if you understand how the Court
11 made this following finding. I'm going to ask you if you
12 testified to this. The court made a finding that the child
13 lived exclusively in Georgia until January 26, 2012. Did
14 you testify that to the Court in Georgia?

15 A Yes, ma'am.

16 Q That the child had lived exclusively in Georgia until 17 January 26, 2012?

18 A Yes, ma'am.

19 Q Did you tell the Court that there was specific dates
20 and times your son was in Bridgeport with his father and 21 grandparents?

22 A Yes, ma'am.

23 Q And what dates did you give the Court down there?

24 A I told them that there was a three month agreement.
25 It began in - well, we made it official in January 26 of 26 2011.

27 Q 2011?

1 (sic) lived exclusively with the mother.

2 THE COURT: I'm not going to restrict her cross
3 on this. I'm going to restrict it if it gets way
4 out. But let's go.

5 Q Okay. So you gave approximate dates to the Court in 6 Georgia about the dates when the child was actually here in 7 Connecticut?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And do you remember at this time what those 10 approximate dates were that you gave to the Court in
11 Georgia?

12 A My son has been gone, like I said, October or -
13 October or November of 2011. And then he had the two visits
14 of 2012. Other than the visits that me and John Michael
15 Devone, Sr. had made together.

16 Q But what I'm asking you if you remember what specific
17 dates you gave. If you don't remember right now what you
18 said -

19 A I gave them round abouts.

20 Q - that's fine.

21 A I gave them round abouts just like I gave you, ma'am.

22 Q Okay. And the round about dates. Again tell me what
23 they were that you said to the Court.

24 A October, November 2011. And the trip that me and 25 John Michael Devone, Sr. made together.

26 Q Okay. But October November 2011, was that supposed
27 to be the end or the beginning of a time period when the

1 child was here in Connecticut?

2 A That would be the end. And then he came back because
3 Senior moved back to Georgia where he was a resident in my
4 apartment, 17 Ridge Run Southeast, apartment T, Marietta,
5 Georgia for all of one month. Then he moved back to
6 Connecticut and took my son for what was supposed to be 7 three months.

8 Q Okay. Now you're saying he took your son. You
9 agreed that the child would travel with Mr. Devone, Sr. back
10 to Connecticut; correct?

11 A As I stated, we had a three month agreement.

12 Q I'm asking you did you agree that he would travel
13 back to Connecticut with his father?

14 A For three months. Yes.

15 Q Now, and what was the testimony that you gave to the 16 Court about the beginning? You said the end of that period
17 was October, November 2011. What was the beginning of that 18 time period?

19 A He only had him for not even - I want to say it
20 wasn't even a full three months. If even.

21 Q Three months before October, November 2011 is what
22 you're saying?

23 A If even.

24 Q I'm asking you.

25 A Yes, ma'am. If even.

26 Q So you're saying that for the three months prior to 27 October, November 2011 your son was with his father in
